

Power-to-X workshop: niche markets and incentive structures in Denmark

24.03.2020 – Aalborg University

The workshop analyses the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats of Power-to-X in Denmark in order to investigate on niche markets and suggestions for incentive structures and public regulation to push the development further.

Agenda

13h – Welcome and introduction by Iva Ridjan Skov, Associate Professor, Sustainable Energy Planning Research Group, AAU (15 min)

 Presentation of the EP2Gas project, Power-to-X technology and scope of the workshop

13h15 – SWOT analysis of the Power-to-X sector in Denmark (70 min)

 4 workgroups, one per SWOT category

 Each workgroup defines 3 main factors for its SWOT category (30 min)

 Presentation of the outputs from each workgroup to others and discussion: 10 min/group (40 min)

14h25 – Coffee break (15 min)

14h40 – Presentation of the main SWOT factors and next stage of the workshop (10 min)

 Presentation of detailed pathways/technologies for Power-to-X

14h50 – Identification of niche markets and incentive structures for i) production and ii) utilization

 3 workgroups (30 min)

15h20 – Restitution of the workgroups proposals: 10 min/group (30 min)

15h50 – Wrap-up and next steps of the project (10 min)

Workshop registration

<https://forms.gle/FF7km2KHxMhUwyVT6>

Contact Noemi Schneider at noemi@plan.aau.dk or +45 9940 2527 for any question.

The project EP2Gas is funded by EUDP.